

As an avid dxer the interference resulting from the BPL would dome the use of the high frequency dx possibilities and I wish to put in my objection to the use of power lines for RF Broadband